HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

FEAR RACE WAR.

The situation at Chattanooga growing out of the lynching of the negro Johnson by a mob Monday night a few hours after the United States Supreme Court had granted a stay of execution of the death sentence passed by a State court assumed a serious aspect yesterday when telegrams were received by President Roosevelt, members of the Supreme Court and Attorney-General Moody from a number of the most prominent and conservative citizens of Chattanooga asking that the government leave the situation in Chattanooga for the local authorities to deal with, explaining that for the federal authorities to take a hand in the matter at this time would, in view of the present disturbed condition, result in nothing short of a grave race war. The messages were carefully considered at the Cabinet meeting yesterday, and while the force of the argument was appreciated by the President and his official advisers, nothing could be determined until the Supreme Court justices could be consulted.

Mr. Moody consulted with Justice Harlan and other members of the court yesterday afternoon in regard to the messages from Chattanooga, and it is the understanding that the justices would not agree to leave the matter of punishment of the local officials and members of the mob to the local authorities.

The messages offered assurances to the authorities in Washington that the law-respecting people of Chattanooga not only did not approve the lynching of the condemned negro, but that they believed proper precautions were not taken by the sheriff and his assistants to save the negro's life, and they further believe that the members of the mob and Sheriff Shipp should be severely punished. They assured the government officials that the sheriff and the participants in the lynching would be adequately punished.

In the meantime, District Attorney Penland, his assistants, a number of deputies and secret-service men are in Chattanooga, and unless orders to the contrary are sent arrests in the case are expected soon.

It is not believed in Washington that the programme already mapped out—to arrest Sheriff Shipp, who had the negro in custody at the time he was lynched, and possibly other local officials and members of the mob, if possible, on a charge of contempt of the Supreme Court—will be carried out. The members of the Supreme Court seem determined that all parties concerned in the lynching of Johnson shall be punished either by the court itself or the federal government.

The Department of Justice had been in telegraphic communication throughout the day with District Attorney Penland, and, it is stated, they have sufficient evidence to warrant the arrest of Sheriff Shipp, if no others.

A Chattanooga man who arrived in Washington yesterday direct from home said:

"For the past four months there have been several cases where negro men assaulted white women of the higest moral standing in Chattanooga, the treatment received by the victim in every case being most brutal. You can imagine the feeling that exists in Chattanooga as a result of these outrages. The large majority of the citizens of Chattanooga are law-abiding and absolutely disapprove of lynch law or any other form of lawlessness, and we feel that the members of the mob that lynched Johnson and the officials who did not prevent the lynching should be punished, and they will be if the federal authorities will let the local courts handle the case. But there are about 25,000 negroes in and around Chattanooga. When any of the officials concerned in the case or members of the mob that lynched the negro are arrested by federal authorities the majority of the negroes will misconstrue the action of the government, and as a result a race war of grave proportions will be, in my opinion, inevitable."

Shot at a Funeral.

Walter Potee, 28 years old, who had been demented three months following an attack of typhoid fever, suddenly developed acute mania shortly before 8 p. m. yesterday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Potee, in Brooklyn, Anne Arundel county, Md., and shot eight persons. Five of the victims were relatives, gathered to attend the funeral of a baby, and three were seriously injured. These three were taken to the University Hospital in Baltimore. As a climax, the maniac set fire to the house. His aged mother and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Sallie Potee, who had taken refuge in a summer house, barely escaped with their lives. Potee's body, with a bullet in the left side of the breast, was taken from the burning building by Chief Shipley and several other city firemen. It was known that the demented man had three pistols and a shotgun. The pistols were taken from his body, and several persons were wounded with the gun as they tried to get near enough to shoot him after he had barricaded himself in the house. Many attempts were made to shoot the man, for it was not known then what had been the fate of the mother and sister-in-law. How his wound was inflicted is a matter of conjecture. All three pistols found were loaded to their capacity, but many persons are of the opinion that the maniac might have had a fourth weapon and ended his own life with it. The fire threatened other houses in the vicinity. This and the shooting wildly excited the residents of the town, who stood about trying to aid all the families in distress. While the bringing out of Potee's body was a heroic thing, the rescue of the body of the baby was equally so, for Harry Roberts, of Brooklyn, ran into the parlor and returned with the little white coffin in his arms while the house was in flames. The mother is on the verge of collapse at the home of Mr. Charles E. Grieneisen, in Brooklyn.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Scalp Specialists Use and Recommend NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

"I am sending you my photograph to show what Newbro's Herpicide has done for me.

"Since I first tried Herpicide upon my hair I have used it exclusively in giving scalp treatments to others, and I would not think of trying to get along without it."

(Signed) MRS. ANNA CONNER.

2807 Archer Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Anna Conner.

Hundreds of lady specialists and hair dressers use and recommend Newbro's Herpicide, instead of products of their own manufacture upon which a much larger profit could be made. They claim that Herpicide makes friends for them and gives much better satisfaction. Some hair dressers use Herpicide for obstinate cases only, but why not use the best first?

Herpicide is a delightful dressing that can be used when there is no disease of the hair or scalp, and as an actual remedy for dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair it stands in a class singularly its own.

Many ladies object to a gummy and sticky hair dressing, or one that is full of sedimentary chemicals intended to dye the hair. The marked preference for a clean and dainty preparation, particularly one that overcomes excessive oiliness and leaves the hair light and fluffy, is reflected in the enormous sale of Newbro's Herpicide. Discriminating ladies become enthusiastic over its refreshing quality and exquisite fragrance. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING. MAR. 24, 1906.

SUSPICION that the republicans are laying the foundation for contesting elections in southern States if they should control the next House of Representatives by a very small majority has been raised by a motion which Representative Cassel, of Pennsylvania, made in elections committee No. 3 yesterday. The committee had under consideration the contested election case of A. J. Houston, republican, against Moses L. Broocks, the sitting democrat from the Second Texas district. Mr. Cassel, a member of the committee, moved a resolution to the effect that Houston had not been elected in the judgment of the committee. Mr. Randell, a Texas democratic member of the committee, urged that the resolution should also declare that Broocks, the democratic contestee, had been elected. There was objection to this extension of the scope of the resolution by the republicans and a somewhat heated discussion followed. Mr. Randell did not go to the extent of putting his suggestion into the form of an amendment to the Cassel resolution, as he wished time to consult with his colleagues as to the best method of procedure. He suspected ulterior motives on the part of the republicans because of the peculiar form of the Cassel resolution. No vote was taken on the resolution, but it will be brought up again. What the democrats suspect is that the republicans are getting ready for an attack on the election laws of several southern States in which the franchise has been restricted in order to shut out the illiterate negro voters. If the Cassel resolution had declared that Broocks had been elected, it would have been recognition by the committee of the legality or constitutionality of the Texas election law. The democrats believe the peculiar form of the resolution was adopted for the purpose of withholding such recognition with the object of attacking later the constitutionality of the election laws of Texas and other southern States. Such an attack may mean the beginning of an attempt to cut southern representation. It is known the republicans are alarmed at the outlook for this fall's elections and fear they will lose control of the House. If they do lose control of that body no move to cut down southern representation will be made. But if they win the House by a narrow margin, then they might think it necessary at next winter's short session, when they will still have their present big majority of 110, to make an attack on the southern election laws and attempt to cut down southern representation or otherwise lay the foundation for contesting the seats of a considerable number of southern members elected to the next Congress as democrats. In this way, should they gain control of the next House by a very narrow margin, they would be able, by ousing democrats, to obtain a working majority, as was done under the direction of the late Speaker Reed in the Fifty-first Congress.

JAPAN emerged from a war with a first-class power with victory crowning her arms, but that nation has a still more serious proposition to face notwithstand the fact the dove of peace is cooing at her door. The black horse has taken the place of the red steed. That the famine in that country which has been thought to be confined to certain localities and not very serious, has now assumed most alarming proportions is shown by private advices received by the New York State Red Cross from its agents in Japan. It is stated that at a most conservative estimate there are now in Japan between 800,000 and 1,000,000 starving persons. The spread of the famine is due to the failure of the rice crops, formerly thought to be limited so certain classes in the northern provinces, but which failure has now been found to be general in those parts of Japan. In addition, the present winter has been one of the severest ever experienced in Japan. The heavy falls of snow and the frequent storms have materially set back and, in some instances, stopped altogether the laying out of rice fields, instituted by the government as a means of relief. No new harvest will be available until next October. Allowing only 10 cents a day per person, the Red Cross has estimated that it will require at least $16,000,000 to save the country people of Japan from death by starvation.

WHAT right has the Roosevelt administration to effect surprise at the decision of Judge Humphrey? In holding the individual members of the beef trust immune from prosecution what more did Judge Humphrey do than the President and his Attorney General did in the Santa Fe Railroad rebating cases? asks the Philadelphia Record. They held Paul Morton to be immune from prosecution, just as the Chicago Judge holds the Armours, Nelson, Morris and the rest to be personally irresponsible. President Roosevelt held that the Santa Fe Railway, and not its officers, should be punished. Even so, declared Judge Humphrey, the beef trust, and not the individuals composing it must suffer the penalty for any violation of the law. Just how a beef trust or a railroad company can be locked up in jail it would puzzle both the president and the judge to explain.

TWO MORE murderers, according to their assumption, have discovered that the gallows is the direct path to heaven. The negroes Johnson and Small, who were hanged at Mount Holly, N. J., today for the brutal murder of Miss Florence Atkinson, announced before they paid the penalty of their crimes that they desired to meet their mundane friends in the realms of bliss, as they were bound direct to heaven. While none should presume to limit the mercy of the Creator, it would seem that the spiritual advisors of such people might suggest that when about to ascend the gallows they manifest some little modesty, no matter how full assurance of faith they may have; as otherwise they make a parody of the Christian religion. Many, however, are far from being convinced that hallelujahs on the gallows are infallible signs of a triumphant entry into eternal bliss

Washington, March 24.

The railroad rate bill will continue to be the principal subject of debate in the Senate during next week. Senator Foster, of Louisiana, one of the democratic members of the Interstate Commerce Commission, will probably lead off with a speech on Monday. Senator Knox will speak during the week. A number of other Senators have been preparing to take part in the debate and will speak as the opportunity offers. Senator Morgan will speak either Monday or Tuesday on his resolution proposing the appointment of a committee of seven Senators to go to the Isle of Pines and examine into the real situation there.

Next week the House will again be devoted to legislation dealing with the great supply bills. Monday will be District of Columbia day. On Tuesday consideration of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation, which has been before the House for nearly two weeks, will be resumed. It will be followed by the Post Office appropriation bill, the work being interrupted on Friday by the consideration of war claims.

Meetings of the conference committee on the statehood bill will begin early in next week. Indications are that there will be a deadlock which will continue until near the end of the session. The House conferees stand for the original House bill which proposes to make two states out of the four territories of Oklahoma and Indian Territory and Arizona and New Mexico. The Senate conferees have been directed to insist upon the adoption of the Senate amendments to the House bill, the main feature of which is that provision for statehood for Arizona and New Mexico is entirely eliminated, leaving only Oklahoma and Indian Territory as candidates for admission as one State. Senator Beveridge is thus put in the peculiar position of being compelled to fight in the conference committee against the admission of Arizona and New Mexico as one State, a proposition which he has favored from the beginning. Unless an agreement is reached before the end of the session the result will be to deny statehood to Oklahoma and Indian Territory for at least another year. This would have a serious political effect and many of the republicans of the House are inclined to believe that the responsibility involved in this proposition is too great for them to carry, especially with a Congressional campaign coming on. Pressure will therefore be brought to bear on Speaker Cannon to induce him to yield.

President Roosevelt and Attorney General Moody had a conference at the White House this morning, beef trust and Tennessee lynching cases being the subjects discussed in all probability. When the Attorney General emerged from the President's office he had nothing but denials to make public. "It is not true," he said, "that I have taken up the matter of the lynching with the Supreme Court. Neither directly nor indirectly have I made any communication with them on the subject in any matter whatsoever. In fact it would be manifestly improper for me to bring the matter to the notice of the Supreme Court, and the statement that I have is as much a reflection upon the court as upon myself and I think in fairness to both that it ought to be denied. I have not received any telegrams or letters from Chattanooga requesting the Department of Justice to hold off on account of a threatened race war, and as far as I know nothing has been received by the President bearing on the matter."

"The executive council of the American Federation of Labor," said President Gompers in giving an account of the morning session, "today decided that the policy of questioning candidates for office on questions affecting labor and the people generally should be continued and more progressively pushed, or prosecuted." "We don't intend to permit the interests of labor to be played with further," he continued. It is safe to say that all the steps that the federation has decided to take in regard to its entrance in politics are not being made public. The council today decided to render moral and financial help to bridge ironworkers in their strike against the contracters and the trade. Strikes are now in progress in several cities. A resolution was adopted, denouncing the bill proposing to abolish compulsory pilotage in certain ports and on coastwise sailing vessels. It was decided to push the movements to reduce the hours of labor in certain crafts, to secure the enactment of child labor laws in the states without them, and to urge the passage of the bill for the investigation of woman and child labor in the United States.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry returned this morning from his inspection of the southern navy yards. Except at New Orleans he found the quarters for men in excellent shape. At New Orleans they are greatly inadequate, and Mr. Newberry will recommend construction of new buildings there. The detachment of marines at Dry Tortugas will shortly be removed and the naval station there abandoned. Mr. Newberry says that the Hot Sandspit is useless for naval purposes. Legislation is pending in Congress to turn the Dry Tortugas over to the Marine Hospital Service to be used as a quarantine station.

New England members of the House held a meeting today to discuss ways and means of securing the passage of the ship subsidy bill at this session of Congress. Representative Littlefield, of Maine, who presided, and Greene, of Massachusetts, appointed a subcommittee to wait upon Speaker Cannon and consult with him as to how the interstate of ships subsidy bill can be subserved. Speaker Cannon has hitherto been opposed to consideration of the ship subsidy bill, which has passed the Senate, by the House at this session.

Thomas F. Walsh is having an automobile built for the use of his daughter, Evelyn, who is recovering from her accident, with a reclining lounge and fitted out like a boudoir. Nothing of this kind is known to the automobile world.

Secretary of War Taft appeared this morning before the Senate committee on military affairs and made a strong plea for the adoption of the bill increasing the coast and field artillery and providing for the regimental formation of the latter. The bill increases the total artillery by about six thousand men, and would cost about $2,629,000 a year. During the course of the discussion, it was stated that with the artillery and other defenses of New York harbor, it would be practically impossible for all the navies of the world to force an entrance. At all the principal ports of the country, it was also stated that the defenses are such as to cause the admiral of any hostile navy to hesitate about making any attack. The regimental form of organization for the field artillery, the Secretary stated, was shown to be absolutely necessary as a result of the experience of the Russo-Japanese war.

The Navy Department today received a dispatch stating that the gunboat Callao had sailed from Canton for a cruise on the West river. The dispatch failed to state the purpose of her trip, but it is supposed that she is in pursuit of the Chinese pirates reported to have sacked a Standard Oil Company launch. The State Department today was without other than routine advices from China.

J. S. Ziegler, assistant foreman of the specification division of the government printing office, has tendered his resignation to the Public Printer, to take effect at once.

Carloads of horses are coming in daily for the opening at the Bennings track, which occurs next Monday, and a most successful season and fine sport is predicted.

A marriage license was issued today to Cornelius N. Bliss, jr., of New York, son of the treasurer of the republican national committee, and Miss Zaidee C. Cobb, a prominent society woman of this city. The wedding will take place April 26.

There are many indications that the opposing elements in the Senate on railroad rate legislation are gradually getting together and that as a result an effective bill will be passed that will be fully approved by the President and will preserve all the legal and constitutional rights of both railroads and shippers. Concessions will be made on both sides and the final bill agreed on will be the result of compromise on important amendments to the pending Hepburn bill.

Driven to Suicide by Toothache.

To make a sure job of it, Herman Reckling, employed as a miner at the Crystal Ridge stripping of A. Pardee & Company at Freeland, Pa., committed suicide yesterday morning by blowing his head off with dynamite. Reckling suffered from a severe toothache Thursday, and that is the only reason his family can advance for his act. He had the molar extracted, but still suffered some pain during the night. Yesterday morning he went to a small opening in the stripping, and seating himself in a comfortable position, with his head resting on a shelf of coal, he placed a stick of dynamite, to which he had already attached an exploder and fuse, on his temple. He then applied the match and in a minute the explosion occurred. His head was literally ground to atoms. The decapitated trunk was found later in the sitting position.

P. M. Winnier, one of the machinists who are out on a strike at the Glamorgan Pipe Works, Lynchburg, was arrested yesterday on a warrant which charges him with threatening to beat, disfigure, disable and kill Isadore Garshee, a machinist, who is at work at the works. Later the young man was admitted to bail in the sum of $100. The security was furnished by friends of the accused, who were on hand shortly after the arrest was made. The number of men at work yesterday was reported to be in excess of Thursday.

Hunter Ashton Purtlebaugh, the twelve-year-old son of Clark G. Purtlebaugh, a prominent farmer of Frederick county, was almost instantly killed in a coasting accident at his home at Gore yesterday. He was hurled from the sled and his skull was fractured by coming in contract with the tree, and he was fatally injured internally. Death ensued a short time after the accident.

Mother and Daughter Asphyxiated.

Clasped in each other's arms, Mrs. Harry B. Moore, aged forty years, and her seven-year-old daughter, Thelma, were last night found dead in bed at their home, 536 north Allison street, West Philadelphia, death having been due to asphyxiation by illuminating gas. There was every indication found that the woman had carefully prepared to end her life, and had taken the little girl with her to death. The bedroom had been carefully arranged, both were clad in fresh linen, and across the bed was stretched a piece of hose, which had been attached to a gas pipe. The police have been unable to find a motive for the deed. The woman's husband, who is said to be an assistant engineer on a tramp steamer, is at sea, and the neighbors know little of the family. A sum of money was found in the house and the family appeared to be in comfortable circumstances. The discovery of the suicide was the result of the curiosity of neighbors who had not seen the woman or her daughter since Thursday. Their suspicions were reported to the police, who forced an entrance into the house and found mother and child dead.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Governor's Appointments.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., March 24.—Governor Swanson announced his staff today. Richmond gets five. Eugene C. Massie is chief. The Eighth district gets one, W. C. Waite, of Culpeper. R. C. Stone, of Salem, will succeed F. P. Brent, secretary of the State Board of Education. Mr. Brent was not an applicant and will get a place with a book concern out of Virginia.

The Algeciras Conference.

Algeciras, Spain, March 24.—The establishment of an accord on all subjects connected with Morocco is now considered certain. On the question of the establishment of a State bank, an agreement is understood to have been reached whereby France will hold three shares and Germany one. The scheme for policing the country, as outlined at present, provides that France shall police three of the harbors and Spain three. Germany will cooperate in policing Casa Blanca. The Inspector General, who is to be placed in charge of the police, will reside at Tangier. He will be either an Austrian or will be named from one of the neutral powers. It is expected that the negotiations to work out the details of this scheme of settlement will occupy about a fortnight.

London, March 24.—The correspondent of the Central News at Algeciras confirms the report sent by the Publishers Press correspondent giving an optimistic view of the chances of reaching an agreement at the Moroccan conference. Semi-official information, he wires, is to the effect that the conference today will reach a satisfactory agreement. Both the French and German delegates have received conciliatory instructions which will make this possible. It has been decided to sign the protocol in which the terms of settlement are set out at Tangier.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, from St. Petersburg, says that Herr Mendelsohn, the German financier, has promised in the event of a favorable settlement of the Moroccan question at the Algeciras conference, to negotiate a loan of 1,000,000,000 francs for Russia in Berlin and Paris.

Johnson and Small Hanged.

Mount Holly, N. J., March 24.—Rufus Johnson and George Small were hanged at 10:10. Both men made confessions. Small said he killed Miss Florence Atkinson while Johnson was robbing the house. The latter in his deposition said: "I am prepared to meet my God, and I want the whole world to meet me in heaven. I am sorry that the crime has been committed. I have talked to God. He has forgiven me." Small said: "I want to meet all my friends in heaven. God, being my help and as far as I am concerned, I am not guilty. I am a child of God, and I am going free. I hold no malice against any one. I did not kill Miss Allison. That statement is true, God knows it."

Mistake of a Minister.

Warsaw, March 24.—The Russian Minister of War a short time ago submitted a medal for the Czar's approval for the Manchurian army. It shows the eye of providence surrounded with the inscription "May God Lift Us." The Czar wrote over the sketch of the design, "In proper time," meaning that the matter would have to wait. The minister misunderstood, and struck the medal with the Czar's words following the inscription. The authorities are now strenuously preventing the circulation of the medals.

Gruesome Statistics.

Berlin, March 24.—The Vorwaerts today prints statistics in regard to the casualties which have occurred in Russia during the internal disorders in the empire. The figures show that during the year 1905, as the result of the repressive measures adopted by the government, 14,130 persons were shot or hanged and 19,540 wounded or maimed. In addition to this, 1,387 political prisoners have been executed since the first of this year.

Convent Destroyed.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 24.—St. Mary's Convent at Nanticoke, connected with the Polish Catholic Church of that place, was destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning, entailing a loss of $10,000. The sisters had a narrow escape, but got out safely. A servant, Mary Cylawski, had one of her legs broken by jumping from a second story window. The fire, it is thought, was caused by an overheated stove.

Chess Contest.

New York, March 24.—Promptly at 8 o'clock this morning the players representing Brown and the University of Pennsylvania in the triangular chess league began their international chess match by cable with a team representing Oxford and Cambridge. The contest is for the Isaac T. Rice international chess trophy, which has been held by the English universities for several years.

Formed Woman's League.

Buda Pest, Hungary, March 24.—Fifty ladies, members of the Hungarian aristocracy, have founded a league under the name of the Tuligarden, to encourage national resistance to Austria. The society proposes to work through the influence it can exert upon the education of children and by boycotting all Austrian products.

Pirates Miss Treasure.

Honkong, March 24.—It has been learned that the Standard Oil Company had planned to send $20,000 in specie on board the launch which was captured yesterday by pirates. Later the plan was changed and the money was not on board the vessel. The pirates captured the launch by throwing a stinkpot among the crew.

Anticipates Revolt.

St. Petersburg March 24.—The government is hastily sending troops to all towns along the Volga river in anticipation of revolts in that region as soon as the river is open for navigation. The towns of Kazan, Samar and Simbirsk are overcrowded with troops.

It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and cure the mucous membrances of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. Miners and Operators.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 24.—The joint scale convention of the four competitive soft coal States met this morning in what was predicted would be its last session. A very slight hope of peace was aroused yesterday when F. L. Robbins came out strongly with his threat to operate his western Pennsylvania mines under the 1903 scale. Beyond admission from the fellow operators of this district that they would be compelled in that case to operate their own mines, the threat did not have great effect. The Ohio, Indiana and Illinois operators remain firm in refusing any increase in wages, which was the leading question discussed Friday.

Lightning changes of sentiment have been recorded during the conference of the miners and operators, but it was predicted this morning that only some unexpected proposal could avoid disagreement in the joint scale committee. Many of the operators here have prepared to leave for their homes tonight. When asked this morning if the prediction that a strike was imminent represented the opinion of the miners, John Mitchell, President of the United Mine Workers, said: "The miners are observing the rule of secrecy adopted by the joint scale committee. We are making no statements no matter what the other side may say."

Massacred by Indians.

Los Angeles, Cala., March 24.—News has reached this city of the murder in Mexico of seven persons, members of the family of Pierce Mesa, brother-in-law of Frederick Hartman, president of the William Hoeg Company, of Los Angeles, and two friends. They were massacred by Indians within a few miles of their homes and their bodies left in the road between Ortiz and Ladura, until a sufficient number of Mexican troops could be sent to overawe the raiding outlaws and bring in their victims. The children were at home at Ladura. The rest of the family drove in carriages to Guaymas. Returning from Guaymas the party was joined by Mrs. Hoff and her son. Here it is said they learned of the presence of a band of Yaquis from the Otates mountains through which they would travel to reach Ladura. The worst of the Otates Pass was passed when behind every ledge came the crack of rifles. The men charged desperately in the slopes, calling upon themselves a rain of lead. The last stand of the survivors was made in the shelter of the overturned carriage and they fought to the last, knowing there was no mercy for them.

Watched Her Assailant Hang.

Poplar Bluff, Mo., March 24.—While her husband sprang the trap which sent to eternity her assailant, Mrs. Dean Norman yesterday stood in the front ranks of the crowd and watched the death struggles on the gallows of Curtis Jackson, a 17-year-old negro boy, who had assaulted her. The crime was committed on February 2 and the hanging occurred on the forty-ninth day after. The day after the assault Jackson only escaped lynching because the Sheriff ordered the arrest of the woman's husband, who led the mob. On February 20 he was convicted and 21 days later he was hanged without having made an appeal to a higher Court and without having asked the Governor for a respite. A report was current days ago that the negroes would kill the man who sprung the trap. Therefore a heavy guard was on hand yesterday to hold back a crowd numbering hundreds, who stood in a pouring rain within a stockade erected in the Court House square.

Upsets Her Legal Funeral.

Elkton, Md., March 24.—While preparations were being made to declare her legally dead, Miss Annie J. Slicer returned here yesterday and will lay claim to half her father's estate, about $12,500. When she was a little girl Miss Slicer's mother died and for several years thereafter she lived with her father. On November 3, 1900, she mysteriously disappeared and from that day until yesterday no word was heard from her and her relative thought she was dead. Ten months ago her father died, leaving his estate to be divided equally between a son and the missing daughter. The son offered a reward for information that would lead to the discovery of his sister, but it did not succeed in locating her. Miss Slicer refuses to talk about her whereabouts, but it is understood that she spent most of her time in New York. It is also said that she left home because of a quarrel with her father.

Set 'em Up to Voters.

Reading, Pa., March 24.—Let the candidates set 'em up all 'round, as the preacher who won a model wife by advertisement, has so placed himself on record. His advice is given in an opinion on the corrupt practices act, which is worrying Berks county officeseekers and thirsty voters. Brownback dabbles in politics, and he knows the value of a drink of beer about election time. He has made a study of the new law, and is sure it puts no ban on drinking. S; the next democratic primaries will be "wet." "This is a free country, says the minister, "and to rob a man of the right to treat friends would be to rob him of his liberty. After candidates have made their pleas, let them invite the voters to the bar and let all have a social drink together. Let treating go on. All things were placed on earth for some good."

Strike at an End.

London, March 24.—A dispatch to the Central News from Lens, France, announces that the strike among the coal miners of that district has come to an end, as the employers have conceded the greater part of the demands made by the men. In the Donai neighborhood the strike continues, although many of the miners have resumed work. The fire in pit No. 2 of the Courriers mine, where the great disaster occurred, is still burning.

Lens, France, March 24.—There is no improvement in the strike situation in the coal mining field here. There has been no further resumption of work and several small clashes between strikers and troops are reported. It is feared that tomorrow will be marked by disorders throughout the entire region.

A dispatch from Columbus, O., says that Governor Pattison was reported slightly improved this morning.

Well Worth Trying.

W. H. Brown, the popular pension attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., says: "Next to a pension, the best thing to get is Dr. King's New Life Pills." He writes: "They keep my family in splendid health." Quick cure for Headache, Constipation and Biliousness 25c. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store.

The Democratic Congressional Committee.

Manassas, March 24.—The democratic congressional committee of the Eighth District, met here at 2 o'clock this evening, present, Messrs. Shackelford, Linn, Gaines and Boothe.

It is decided to hold a primary on June 20 to nominate a candidate for Congress.

All candidates must present their names by April eighteenth to Chairman Shackleford.

Coffin too Big to Enter Church.

Chester, Pa., March 24.—Undertakers of this city are puzzled as to how they will remove the body of Jennie Loper, a negress weighing 700 pounds, who died at her home in Welsh street yesterday morning. Although only 5 feet tall, the woman measured 3 feet 2 inches across the shoulders, was 30 inches in diameter, through the waist, and 2 feet across the calves of the legs. Her coffin will be the largest ever made in this county. It will be 3 feet 8 inches wide, inside measurement; 6 feet 4 inches in length and 18 inches in depth. It will be necessary to hold the service on the church steps, as it will be impossible to carry the coffin through the door.

Bodies Recovered.

Cleveland, O., March 24.—A dispatch from Wheeling says twenty bodies taken from the Century mine which was demolished by an explosion have been identified, six remains unidentified and the prospects are four more bodies will be recovered today making the death list thirty, at least, while the officers of the mine expect it to reach thirty-four.

Italy Suspicious.

Rome, March 24.—The Italian newspapers continue to complain that Germany is interfering in Tripoli. They claim that the scientific mission Germany has sent to Tripoli is solely a political one. Signor Moschini will interpellate the government on the subject.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 24.—The stock market during the first hour ruled dull and commission houses generally complained of the dearth of orders. The most active brokers recently said that this morning he had not yet done 100 shares of stock, and that all the business was switching between room traders. The price movements were narrow, declines being sustained in a majority of issues of ¼ to 1 per cent.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Samuel A. Ashbridge, former Mayor of Philadelphia, died early this morning at his home, 2037 north Broad street.

Adolf Weisner, a naturrlized American citizen has been arrested at Saundarf, charged with evading the law requiring military service from the subjects of Germany. He returned to Germany on March 10, and has now been arrested.

That Investigation.

A. A. Campbell, of Wythe; R. Tate Irvine, of Big Stone Gap; J. Norment Powell, of Bristol, and R. E. Bruce, former member of the State Senate from Wise county, are all in Richmond in the investigation of the alleged juggling of bills and mysterious amendments. The committee met Thursday evening and heard statements from those named, and they agree in every particular with the statements made by Col. Joseph Button, Clerk of the Senate; Judge Gooch and all who have previously testified in regard to the check given by Mr. Campbell to Judge Gooch for copying certain bills a second time. It was made plain that there had been no secrecy in connection with the matter, and that the check was suggested by Colonel Button to Mr. Campbell as compensation for extra work done by Judge Gooch, the engrossing clerk, as a matter of courtesy. The drawing of the check was known to all the men named and was given with the consent and approval of each. The committee met again yesterday and adjourned until today without hearing any witnesses, at which time it is understood their report will be submitted and made a part of the record of the House and Senate.

A Foundling

An infant, but a few days old, was placed at the front door of the Children's Home, southwest corner of Duke and Royal streets, early last night. The police say the deposit was made by a woman who was clad in a black suit, black furs, and a black hat. After placing the child at the door she rang the bell and fled. The officers started in search of her immediately. It was said that she boarded an electric car for Washington. She had a well-worn satchel in her hand. The infant was scantily clad and would have frozen to death had it been long exposed to the cold. It is said that a strange woman with an infant reached this city about half-past six o'clock yesterday morning via the C. & O. road, and since the baby was left at the home her whereabouts have been sought. There is another theory, however, which seems more probable which the police are following up.* Captain Boardman, of Washington has notified the authorities of this city that he is using every exertion to identify the woman wanted in this city, it being believed that she left for the capital city immediately after leaving the baby at the home.

Boat Capsized.

Mr. H. M. Hochman and his brother had a thrilling experience early last night while in a batteau near the Dyke, a short distance below this city. They left here in the afternoon for the purpose of placing some articles in an ark and while on the return trip their boat was capsized. Both men found themselves up their necks in chilly water, and they made their way to the shore as best they could. They finally reached the station at the Dyke where they awaited a northbound electric train which brought them to this city. Their clothing was wet and torn when the two men reached their homes. Their guns and other articles were lost by the accident. The boat is almost a fac simile of the Woodbury and is expected to be completed within two months. After the launching a handsome lunch was served, at which speeches were made by Mr. John Callahan, Mayor Paff and others. Among the Alexandrians present besides the Mayor were President J. T. Sweeney of the Board of Aldermen and Councilman C. B. Marshall.

Outlet of Big Sewer.

A mud-digging machine has started the work of making the excavation through the flats on the District side of the river, a short distance above the Belleview naval magazine, for the outlet of the big sewer which has been built over the Eastern branch and is now being constructed through the portion of the District lying south of the Eastern branch to where the machine is now digging. A trench, it is stated, is to be dug from the deep water of the channel to a point inshore, and in this trench the outlet pipes, which will carry the sewage, will be laid so as to make them discharge at the bottom of the river. The location of the sewer outlet at that point was the cause of friction between the authorities of the District of Columbia and Alexandria, it being claimed that an easterly wind will blow all the sewage discharged at that point across the river and into the docks here, and will make this city unhealthy. Two or three weeks will be required by the dredging machine to complete its portion of the task, although the work will be pushed vigorously.

Personal.

Although nothing definite has been determined upon concerning the assistant postmastership, it is reported on the street that Mr. James E. Johnston will be appointed to that position.

Dr. T. Marshall Jones, who has been quite sick for the past few weeks, is improving and hopes soon to be about again.

Mr. Henry Posey, driver of the Columbia steam fire engine, is confined to his home by sickness. Mr. E. Forushill is acting in his place.

Rev. J. P. Stump will preach his last sermons as pastor of the M. E. Church South tomorrow.

Miss Lucy C. Leadbeater has gone to East Orange, N. J., to visit friends.

Rev. Thomas Semmes, of Richmond, will preach at Christ Church next Thursday night.

Launching of New Steamer.

The steel ferryboat Callahan, which is being built by the Harlan & Hollingsworth Corporation in Wilmington, Del., for the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company to ply between Alexandria and Washington, was launched today. Miss Louise Paff, daughter of Mayor F. J. Paff, of this city, christened the boat. The launching was attended by a number of persons from Baltimore, Washington, Alexandria and other cities, including officers of the steamboat company. The Alexandrians and Washingtonians left the capital city in a private Pullman car provided by the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, and were royally entertained.

Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Monday, March 19, was the sixty-eighth anniversary of the organization of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of this city, and the occasion was celebrated at the regular meeting of the lodge last night, when an appropriate programme was rendered in Odd Fellow's Hall, on north Columbus street. As had been anticipated, the affair was pleasant throughout and greatly enjoyed by all present. As has been stated in the Gazette, the anniversary of the institution of Odd Fellows in the United States will be observed in this city by a special service in Grace Church Sunday evening, April 28.

Auction Sales.

A pair of horses advertised for sale at auction today were bought by Mr. P. T. Harrington for $243. The large trap and double set of harness were withdrawn and the light trap disposed of. Capt. R. F. Knox was the auctioneer.

Capt. R. F. Knox sold at auction today a lot of ground 30x102 with the improvements thereon, situated on the east side of Columbus street, between Wolfe and Wilkes streets, to Mr. N. S. Greenaway for $320.

The schooner Hampton with lumber for Mattawoman by H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Indian Head.

The steam yacht Gretchen and a scow of the Columbia Sand Dredging Company are at the shipyard undergoing repairs.

Second Presbyterian Church.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian church are having the church painted and papered. On account of the improvements being made there will be no preaching there tomorrow. Sunday School will also be omitted, as will the prayer meeting next Wednesday. But it is expected that there will be the usual services on Sunday week.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The pulpits in the several churches will be occupied by the resident clergy tomorrow.

People from lower Fairfax county who came here today say that snow covered the ground there this morning.

The weather became cloudy and cold at the close of yesterday, and similar conditions have prevailed today. Snow began to fall shortly after noon.

Madeline, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. Charles E. and Mrs. Elizabeth Churchman, died at her parents' home in the southwestern section of the city last night.

A coal oil tank exploded in Mr. M. J. McFarland's store, north Washington street, yesterday, which resulted in damaging the stock and fixtures of the store to the amount of $280.

There was nothing new to report in the market this morning. Butter and eggs were about unchanged in prices, but dressed poultry was soaring upward. The supply of country produce was limited.

Lieutenant Doyle, of the Washington police force, recently appointed to succeed Lieutenant Moore, deceased, is a son of the late Michael Doyle, who many years ago lived on Lee street, between Wolfe and Wilkes, in this city.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 24.

SENATE.

The Senate was not in session today, having adjourned yesterday until Monday.

HOUSE.

Upon convening today, the House without opposition adopted a rule providing for the consideration of the bill prohibiting hazing at the Naval Academy. Under the rule the bill reported by the naval affairs committee is to be taken up immediately after the private pension bills, the special order for today, have been acted upon. The rule provides for a vote upon the bill and all the amendments that may be offered at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

A call was issued today by Senator Wm. B. Allison and Representative Hepburn, for a joint caucus of Senate and House republicans to be held on the floor of the House Wednesday, April 4, at 8 p. m. for the selection and organization of a new republican congressional committee.

It was practically settled that Representative Sherman, of New York, will be the new chairman of the committee and Tawney, of Minnesota, vice chairman. Representative Dawson, of Iowa, leads as the choice for secretary.

Daniel Scores Powder Trust.

Declaring that the nation's defenses were seriously menaced by the powder trust, Senator Daniel appealed for the amendment providing for construction of a government factory during the discussion of the fortifications bill which was passed by the Senate yesterday. He said that the manufacture of smokeless powder was completely monopolized by the International Company, and that not a pound could be secured except from that company. The United States could, he said, build and equip four plants at $250,000 each, pay for them out of the profits "extorted" from the government in the course of a year, and have more than a million dollars left. He declared that our battleships carry powder sufficient only to sustain a fire of half an hour. We have on hand only 4,000,000 pounds of powder, he said, and declared that in case of war it would be soon shot into the air. This he did not consider a safe condition. The bill carries an appropriation of $5,523,000 and provides $125,000 for the erection of a factory.

Staunton a First Class City.

The Court of Appeals yesterday refused to grant a writ of mandamus and prohibition in the Staunton census cases, which means that the Augusta metropolis henceforth will stand in the category of first-class Virginia cities. This decision of the tribunal will necessitate a reorganization of the City Council into two separate branches. After the new census was taken and it was found that Staunton, owing to the annexation of certain territory, had a population of more than 10,000, the point was made that the inmates of the Western State Hospital, the Deaf, Dumb and Blind School and other public institutions should not be included in the number of inhabitants. The court held, however, that these unfortunates were rightfully included, and thereby followed the precedent set by the United States census officials.

Straight Flush Beat Four Aces.

W. S. Price, of Virginia Beach, drew four aces in a poker hand at the Washington House, in Norfolk, recently, and thought it a shame to have only $50 on the game. He had no more than this with him, but, delaying the play a moment, he had Proprietor John T. Lewis cash his check for $400. He bet this and his 50. His opponent quickly exhibited a straight flush and pocketed the cash. Disgusted, Price returned to Virginia Beach, and declaring he had been "flim flammed," he ordered his bank to refuse payment on the check he had given. Lewis immediately sued to recover the $400, and in court yesterday disclaimed any knowledge that gambling was going on in his place. He won his suit, and Price will have to pay the $400 check.

The Automobile Bill.

The automobile bill which was so strenuously opposed by automobile-owners, was passed at the tail end of the legislative session and goes into effect June 13. One provision of the automobile bill, and the one that the automobilists most object to, is that in case a driver meets a wagon and the animals drawing the wagon become frightened the automobilist must not only come to a dead stop, but must alight from his own vehicle and help the farmer pacify his horses, mules or oxen, as the case may be. All owners of automobiles must register their machines with the secretary of the commonwealth and get a number for the machine, which must be conspicuously displayed on the automobile.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. To be Wedded.

Following the issuance yesterday at the City Hall in Washington of a marriage license to Alphonso Zelaya, 21 years old, son of the President of Nicaragua, to marry Miss Margarita Lee Baker, 18 years old, of Washington, it was announced at the home of the prospective bride's parents that the wedding was to take place next week, probably Monday or Tuesday. Dr. W. W. Baker, father of the young lady, made the announcement, stating that there was no opposition now to the wedding and that the father of young Zelaya had finally given his consent. The young couple, Dr. Baker said, expected to leave Washington soon after the wedding for New York, where Mr. Zelaya will probably reside. Mr. Zelaya was sent to this country several years ago by his father to take the course at West Point. After spending three years there he decided that he was not cut out for a soldier and resigned, going to Washington shortly afterward. Soon after his arrival there he met Miss Baker, with whom he fell in love. When the father of Zelaya learned of his son's attachment for the Washington girl it is said that he sent for him to return home. The youth refused, and it is declared that several weeks ago he was taken from the home of Miss Baker, where he was calling, and carried in a closed cab to the Nicaraguan Legation and later sent to his home in Central America. A correspondence was kept up, however, and when the consent of the President of Nicaragua was obtained Zelaya hastened back to this country to claim his bride.

Double Tragedy.

Two pistol shots in quick succession a few minutes before 5 o'clock yesterday morning in Mansfield, Ohio, revealed a double tragedy at Miss Josephine Stevenson's boarding-house, the murder of Miss Roberta Grace Zellner, aged twenty-eight, a prominent young church worker, by her lover, Roy Shank, a molder, aged twenty-two, who then killed himself. When Levi Stevenson was awakened by the sound of the shots he rushed out of his room adjoining Shank's, and, finding Shank's door locked, effected an entrance, and there, side by side on the bed, were the murderer and his victim covered with blood. Shank was dead, but Miss Zeller was still breathing when the police officers arrived a few minutes later. That the deed was premeditated was shown by the fact that Shank had purchased the revolver Thursday afternoon, and that after getting the girl to his room yesterday morning he locked the door, took the key out, and put it in his pocket, so that she could not escape from his clutches. The high character of the young woman and the fact that an emply bottle was found on the washstand leads to the belief that she was drugged and decoyed to her lover's room and there murdered because she had refused to marry him until he had reformed his habits. Shank was fined last Monday evening in the Police Court for assault and battery on Charles Eby. Because of his habits of drink Miss Zellner's parents had urged her to have nothing more to do with him.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. Oh, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shodick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several does that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

To Contest Election.

At a meeting of the Winchester branch of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League, held in Winchester yesterday afternoon, the question of contesting the local option election at Winchester Thursday which was carried by the "wet" ticket by 51 majority, was discussed and legal opinions on the subject were secured. While representatives of the local Anti-Saloon League decline to give out any official statement, it is practically certain that the election will be contested and taken to the Court of Appeals for final settlement. The ground for contest will be that Judge W. M. Atkinson, of the Corporation Court, had no legal right to construe the constitution of Virginia to mean that voters could register and qualify up to the day of election without regard to payment of taxes at least six months prior to the election. Under the ruling, representatives of the Anti-Saloon League assert that many votes were polled, and that these votes carried the election for the saloon men. An opinion similar to that of Judge Atkinson was rendered by Circuit Judge Thomas W. Harrison. The Anti-Saloon League of Virginia will support the local branch in contesting the local option election and it is stated that eminent counsel will be engaged. Should the case be won in the Court of Appeals by the Anti-Saloon League it will mean that Thursday's election will be thrown out and another ordered.
